Fast Fashion & Feminism – it’s linked.

Women are being exploited globally at the hands of fast fashion and by (not that much of an) extension – us. As a woman, and particularly a woman of colour, I was finding it harder to truly identify myself as ...

Aung San Suu Kyi’s met by protesters whilst receiving the honorary “Freedom of the City of London” award.

State Counsellor met with cries of “shame on you” and “Suu Kyi is lying; Rohingyas are dying” outside Guildhall, May 8. “I think there is a lot of hostility there – it is Muslims killing Muslims as well, if they ...

Conflict in Yemen: An overview on the war no one is talking about.

It’d be pretty silly to start this by assuming you’ll all know exactly what I’m talking about, given that the title of this post is “Conflict in Yemen: An overview on the war no one is talking about.”, so allow ...

A Scathing Account of American Racism: The Underground Railroad, Colson Whitehead.

LIFESTYLE | December 1, 2016 | By Sumaira Miah

Not only has POTUS had his nose in this book (and no I am not referring to President- Elect Donald Trump), Oprah has been left speechless by it too, describing it to be “heart stopping” and urging everyone to read to the very last page, so of course naturally I’m going to do just that, I mean – it’s Oprah.

The Underground Railroad has been praised and cherished by many, it’s been awarded:

- Winner of the National Book Award for Fiction
- Finalist for the Kirkus Prize
- Finalist for the Carnegie Medal
- #1 New York Times Bestseller
- #1 Time Magazine Book of the Year

INTRODUCTION

My name is Sumaira Miah, I'm a Journalism graduate with intentions of pursuing careers in journalism, editorial and communications. As an organised and creative individual, I have a grasp on what speaks to various audiences, this enables me to identify what types of content will work effectively with audience. I'm an efficient and decisive individual, below details my experience in support of this.

EXPERIENCE

NEWS EDITOR | JOURNALISM LONDON

September 2016 – September 2017

I led a newsroom of several editors (social media and bulletins), writers and production crew. I planned coverage, edited writing by reporters and managed web, Twitter and Facebook pages. I was decisive and allocated roles, I then made sure that everyone was on top of their duties as well as offering as much help as I can to everyone.

NEWS EDITOR/REPORTER | GLOBAL CAMPUS NETWORK

September 2017 - Present

As our teams were spread across the globe (Canada, United States, Brazil, Hong Kong, India and Russia) it was my duty to communicate with these respective countries, keeping in mind time differences and maintaining communications throughout. As a news editor I led a newsroom of a small group of reporters as well as working with other reporters across the globe via skype and email. I planned coverage and edited video footage. As a reporter I wrote scripts and gained
