

Broadcast Journalism VT package form

(Please complete one form per VT. News editor to oversee completion)

VT package title: Colourscape exhibition is sure to brighten up your day

Synopsis: This may bank holiday weekend Wembley park welcomes colourscape. A wonderful mirage of color and sound that is available to visit completely free of charge. JLDN Reporter Miryam Rafo went to explore the colorful surroundings at the event.

Name: Miryam Rafo

---

Role: Reporter

Time spent on project: 2 days

Describe your specific contribution to this project: As a reporter I prepared my questions which I will ask for the one which I will interview, I wrote what I will say in the peace to camera and I look for some pictures to the place where we were going to film to know where I will do the peace to camera and to have a general view.

Name: Pedro Bisso

---

Role: Filmer

Time spent on project: 2 days

Describe your specific contribution to this project: As filmer I planned the shots, and also had responsibility of equipment. I also researched the location and how we would be able to film there and where the best shots were going to be.

Name: Camille Buignet

---

Role: VT Editor

Time spent on project: 2 days

Describe your specific contribution to this project: The first day of the project I wrote the script for the voiceover of the VT. As editor It was my responsibility to edit the VT package after filming was completed.

Name: Joshua Webb

---

Role: Researcher/News Editor

Time spent on project: 2 days

Name: Joshua Webb

---

Describe your specific contribution to this project: I researched facts about the event we were attending as well as booking an interview and contacting the organisers to get the all clear to film at the event.

Name:

---

Role:

Time spent on project:

Describe your specific contribution to this project: